6.3 Compensation for passing the WIA International Qualification Test and WIA Global Education Center incentives

In the East there is a belief that education is a grand plan that looks centuries into the future. In today's Web 3.0 era, training professionals through education is very important for the sustainable growth of industries around the world. The WIA International Qualifications Examination embodies these principles by rewarding those who take on the challenge and succeed, and by reinforcing the value of education at the forefront of technological and industrial advancement.

Candidates who pass the WIA International Qualification Test will receive 20% of the test fee back in WIA coins to the address provided during registration. This incentive not only motivates individuals to perform well on exams, but also stimulates activity within the WIA Coin ecosystem. In addition, 30% of the exam fee is allocated as operational compensation to the WIA Global Education Center to continue supporting educational excellence.

Compensation and Benefits Details:

- N: Total number of applicants for the WIA International Qualification Test
- NI: Applicants who passed the exam
- N2: Applicants who did not pass the exam
- Q: 30% of the total exam fee is used to support the operation of the WIA Global Training Center
- Q1: Compensation of 20% of the test fee to successful candidates.
- Q2: 50% of total test fee, contributed to WIA Foundation profits

Key benefits:

1. Compensation for passing: Successful applicants will be compensated with 20% of the test fee in WIA coins.
2. Operating Incentives: A portion equal to Q constitutes the operating profit of the WIA Global Education Center.

Rewards (Q, Q1) will be transferred to the WIA wallet address and WIA Global Education Center address of the successful candidate on the day of the exam result announcement.

Important: Compensation for passing the exam and WIA Global Education Center operation incentives are only provided if the exam fee is paid with WIA Coins.

This structured approach emphasizes WIA's commitment to fostering education and professional development, rewarding performance, and supporting the infrastructure that makes it all possible.

7. WIA International Qualification Test Ecosystem

Rewards for passing the WIA International Qualification Exam:

If you take and pass the WIA International Qualification Examination using WIA Coin, you will be compensated an amount equivalent to 20% of the examination fee within WIA Coin.

WIA Global Training Center Operations Compensation:

WIA Global Education Center shares operating profits with participants and provides compensation equivalent to 30% of the exam fee in WIA Coin.

Attendance Quiz Rewards:

When members sign up for WIA Land, they receive 5,000 WIA Land as a sign-up bonus. Members have the opportunity to earn up to 30 credits each day (maximum 0.2 per day) by answering 5 questions correctly on the WIA International Qualification Exam. These quizzes are updated 24 hours a day (Korean standard) and are used for 30 credits (including 2 ethics credits) that require recertification every two years.

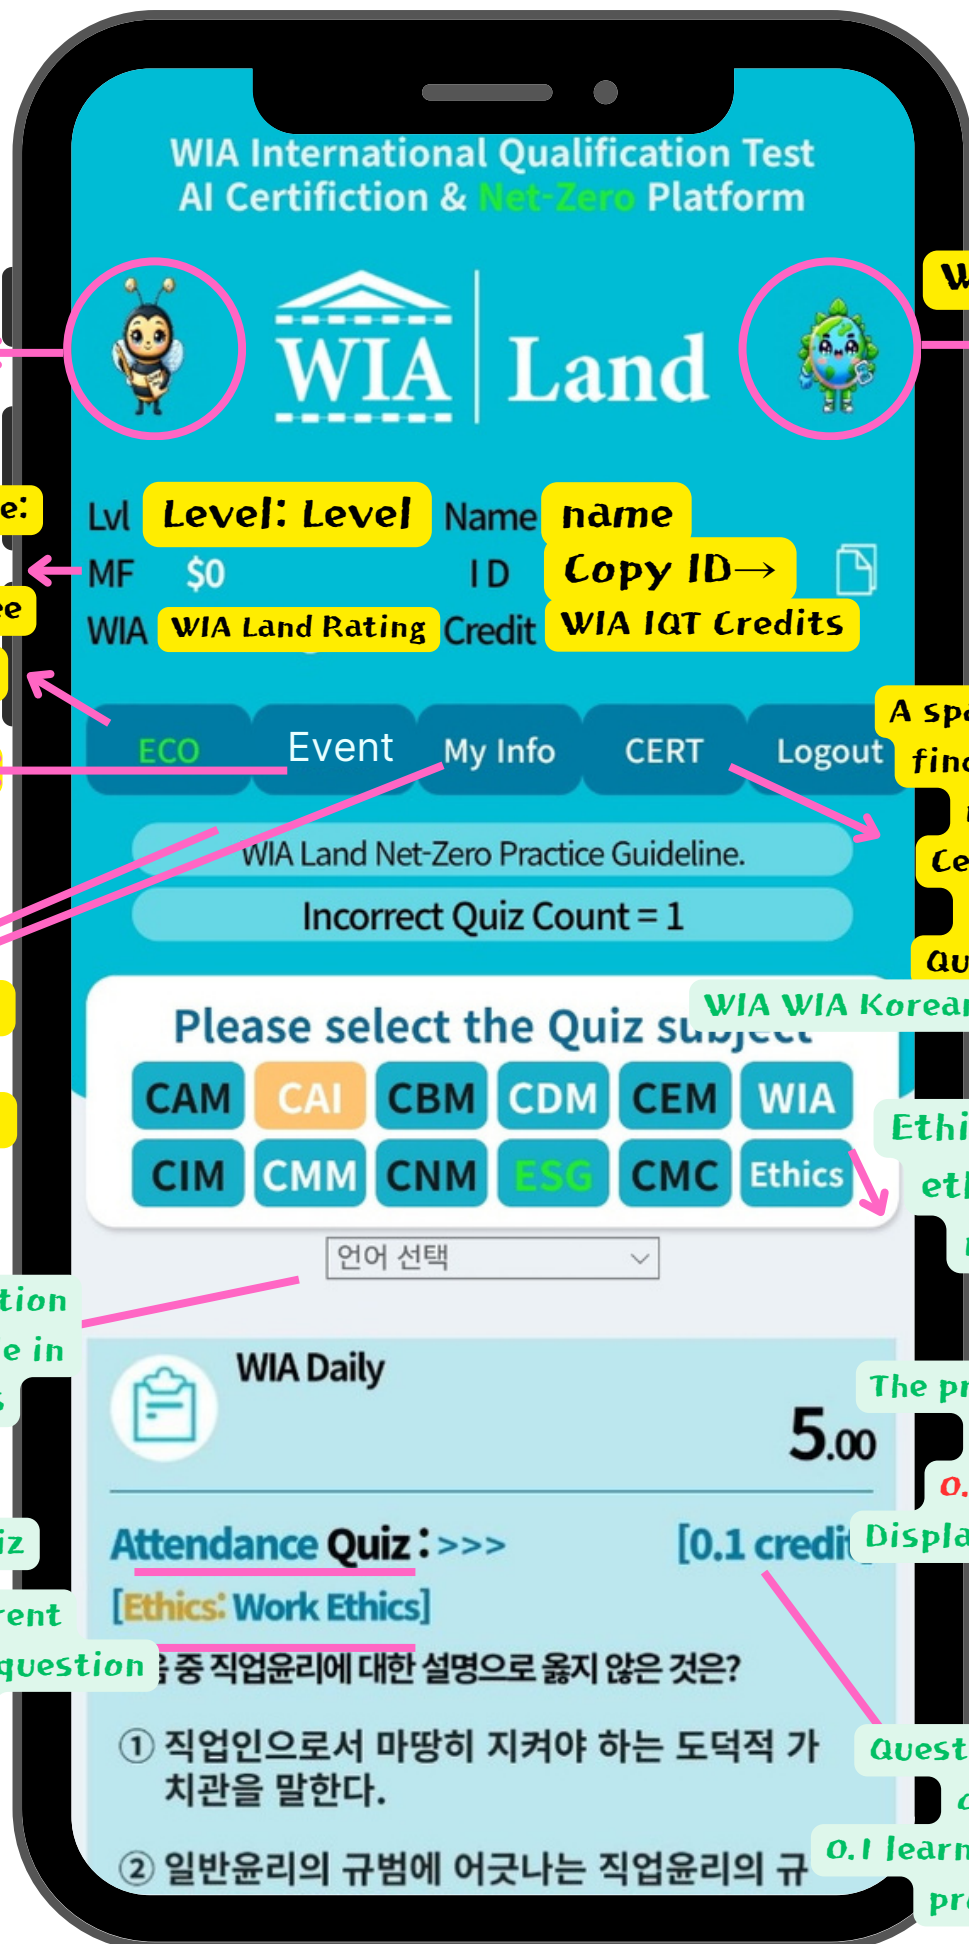

Credit is awarded to those who answer the first and fifth questions correctly (100% correct answer rate).

WIA Daily is provided at 0.2% (compounded interest) of the previous day's WIA Land value, and depending on the correct answer to the first question, 80% of the Daily is given as WIA Net-zero and 20% is given as WIA Learning.

If the value of WIA Net-Zero exceeds 50, WIA Net-Zero is converted to twice the value through the function key of the Convert to WIA Land icon and added to WIA Land. Since the benefits of WIA Family vary depending on the level of WIA Land, WIA Land members can increase WIA Learning, which is a resource for WIA Points, through daily attendance quizzes without burden.

In addition, for sustainability, when financial resources are insufficient, the distribution ratio of WIA Coin is used for the WIA qualification test fee.
